TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

AND NOW, this 25th day of January, 2022, upon consideration of Plaintiffs' Emergency Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order (ECF No. 4), and the Defendants' brief in opposition thereto,

WHEREAS Plaintiffs will likely suffer irreparable harm, including exposure to present and existential threats to health and safety, increased risk of serious bodily injury and/or death, and lost instructional time in the absence of a temporary restraining order;

WHEREAS no adequate remedy at law exists to redress Plaintiffs' injuries;

WHEREAS there is a substantial likelihood that Plaintiffs will succeed on the merits;

WHEREAS the potential harm to Plaintiffs if a temporary restraining order is denied outweighs the potential harm to Defendants if it is granted;

WHEREAS the public interest is best served by enjoining and restraining Defendants' conduct and protecting the status quo until this matter is resolved;

It is HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Motion is GRANTED. It is FURTHER ORDERED that:

1. Defendants, their agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with any of them, are ENJOINED from implementing or enforcing the Board of School Directors of the Perkiomen Valley School District's December 13, 2021 decision to rescind the universal masking policy previously instituted by the School Board on August 9, 2021, and from taking any other action to rescind that policy that is not in compliance with applicable law.
2. The Perkiomen Valley School District and the School Board shall immediately notify the entire School District by all means possible that universal masking is still required.
3. Plaintiffs may FILE a motion for a preliminary injunction no later than January 28, 2022, and Defendants' brief in opposition shall be due on February 1, 2022.
4. The Parties shall APPEAR for a hearing on Plaintiffs' Motion for a Preliminary Injunction on February 4, 2022 at 10:00AM in Courtroom 10A.

This Order shall remain in effect for fourteen days, until February 8, 2022, or until this Court orders otherwise.
